"Aid for Educators Has New Partners"

Aid for Educators is proud to announce Albertsons and Krogers are helping fund our efforts. Every time you shop, at these stores, Aid for Educators will receive a percent of your purchase. It's easy and you will be helping us help our teachers.

When shopping at Albertsons just have our bar code scanned at check out time. Our Community Partner information will be printed at the top of your sales receipt. Below are two links to save and print a shopping list and key card to use. Shopping Lists Key Cards

Starting August 1 just register your Kroger Plus card at the ONLINE link, Then just click Kroger Community Rewards, enter your Plus card number, once verified, just enter 91131 or Aid for Educators. Then every time you use your Plus card you will be helping our teachers.

These are great on-going programs and with your help we can make Aid for Educators a success.

If you would like to mail two laminated Albertsons key cards just email us your request. admin@aid4edu.org.

HIGHLIGHTS

Albertsons & Krogers are now Partners

Like our facebook page and stay informed about our progress.

We are now actively asking for donations to help supply our teachers starting the 2013-2014 school year. Our first project is to help the new teachers and their classrooms at the new Adams Elementary school.

Show your love and respect for teachers. Check our various designs. All proceeds will be used for our teachers.

Videos Why Teachers Buy Supplies
